The main activity of the year was earning money to send a Korean war orphan to school. The treasury wasn't extensive, so the Lettermen helped with the cost. We would like to thank Mrs. Lohman for her donation also.

Other activities of the year included making wreaths at Christmas, selling refreshments at the home games, and the Annual Mothers' Tea.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Washington Never Slept Here," a three-act comedy, was presented by the Junior Class on November 22, 1968. The plot revolved around a frustrated museum curator who believed he was seeing ghosts. This was a plan to take away his job, which inadvertently involved his whole family.

There was never a dull moment with all the confusion including a seance.

Jerry Flaherty and Peter Vincent, team captains, and Harold Barfoot, ASB president.

WOODCUTTING

Cutting wood was the Lettermens' largest money-making project this year. They made several hundred dollars to pay off the athletic debt. The Lettermen also sponsored the Grade School Dance Recital, and the Whitman College Fine Arts Tour that came on March 26th.

Crowning the Queen

The Queen and runners-up
Wanda, Michelle, Daffney, and Geraldine.

This year the Seniors got into the spirit of Homecoming by starting "Homecoming Week." Every day was highlighted by a different activity, and the week ended with a Homecoming Queen contest. The Homecoming Dance was a big success. Live music was provided by the "Generation Gap."

JR - SR BALL AND BANQUET

The Jr-Sr Banquet, Ball and Prom was combined this year at Rosario, on March 21st. The Banquet was held in the "Moran Room," and Harold received applause from all when he read his will concerning road safety. The Ball was in the "Cascade Room" where the "Menagerie" provided the entertainment. The evening was enjoyed by all.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This is Orcas ...
The place that will
Never be forgotten
Because of the good times
We've had here.

I would like to give a special thanks to the entire Viking staff for their work on the annual. I would especially like to thank Patty Cadden, our publisher, for her help and planning; and Mr. Geer for his necessary advice.

Thanks also to the faculty and students of Orcas for their wonderful cooperation that made this year's Viking possible.

I am very pleased with the 1969 Viking, and I hope you are too.
